Video released in bid to catch burglary gang

RAYMOND BROWN

CCTV images and video have been released after a gang of bungling would-be burglars attempted to break into a home in Haverhill.

Detectives from Suffolk Police have now launched a hunt for the failed criminals after the home was targeted by four men who were seen covering their faces when they spotted one of the cameras placed around the home.

Police have released both moving and still images in the hunt for the gang which come from two cameras, including one in the garden of the property.

Footage of the would-be thieves' antics were posted on YouTube and set to comedian Benny Hill's signature "chasing" music by The Edwin Davids Jazz Band.

The video, which came from the victim's home CCTV camera, was removed from the website by the owner of the house on Monday.

The incident took place in Cardinal Way between 12.31-12.45pm on

A Suffolk Police spokeswoman said the men had their faces covered and were wearing gloves.

They failed to gain access and nothing was stolen in the incident. Anyone with information can contact Haverhill police on 101 quoting crime reference HH-15-851.

MODEL MATERIAL: Kayleigh Hounsell is competing in two national beauty contests

A GIRL from Haverhill is preparing to compete in two national beauty competitions.

Kayleigh Hounsell, 12, a pupil at Samuel Ward Academy, is taking part in the junior category of Miss Teen Great Britain and Miss High Street Model UK.

She has already secured a place in the final of Miss High Street Model UK, which will take place in Liverpool next March, and is through to the semi-finals of Miss Teen Great Britain.

If she is chosen as one of the 200 finalists, she will take part in a beauty queen challenge day and a pyjama party in Blackpool in October.

Proud mum Sarah-Jane Hounsell said: "Kayleigh's wanted to be a model since she could talk. She's a typical girl who loves girly things. It would be great if she got through."

Kayleigh could be fast-tracked to the final of Miss Teen Great Britain if her picture gets the most likes on the competition's Facebook page. You can help her out by visiting www.facebook.com/MissTeenGreatBritain. Find her on Twitter under @Model_KayleighH.

First meeting of new lunch club a success

TASTY:
Mayor of Haverhill Roger Andre with the Soup-A-Lunch volunteers

A NEW lunch club organised its first meal this Tuesday.

The Leiston Community Soup-a-Lunch Club was launched by Mayor of Haverhill Roger Andre at the Leiston Centre this Tuesday.

Five older people enjoyed soup, a roll and dessert for just £3.

Soup-a-Lunch was developed by volunteers, led by Joan Key, and with the support of Gavin Hodge, community involvement and liaison officer for Age UK Suffolk. It has also received a £250 grant from Cllr Paul McManus.

Tesco donated rolls, crockery and cutlery to the lunch club, and Hughes Electrical donated two microwaves.

The next lunch will take place on Tuesday, May 12 and there will be no need to book - just turn up at the Leiston Centre at 12pm.

UKIP councillor at centre of racism row to stand again

HANNAH MIRSKY

A COUNCILLOR who resigned amid allegations of racism is standing for election this May.

Bryan Hawes stood down from his role as a UKIP town councillor for Haverhill North in September 2013, after colleagues reported him for breaching the code of conduct.

Now he is standing for election, again as a UKIP candidate, as a town councillor for Haverhill Town (South), and as a borough councillor for Kedington.

The incident that caused offence took place in July 2013, while Mr Hawes was giving out flyers promoting the Haverhill Summer Bash.

He was with other councillors including Cllr Gary Stroud and Cllr Maureen Byrne outside Tesco in Cangle Road.

He said at the time: "A young black bloke came out of Tesco and Stroudy (Cllr Stroud) went to give him a leaflet and I said: 'Don't give them to black people, we don't want them on our rec.'"

Mr Hawes said that he was "not aware that I had caused any offence to the person I was alleged to have offended" at the time, and that he made an apology to the councillor involved.

After an official complaint was made and Mr Hawes received a letter from the Monitoring Officer, he decided to resign, "having felt I could not work in the same council as the persons who had reported me after having accepted my earlier apologies and also to protect the party's image."

He said: "The Monitoring Officer

STANDING: Bryan Hawes

UPSET: Maureen Byrne

decided to take no further action and closed the case without further comment. He confirmed there was nothing to stop me standing for Council again as there was no stain on my character as far as he was concerned. And that is why I am now standing again, especially as the main complainant has now decided not to stand again."

Julian Flood, UKIP parliamentary candidate for West Suffolk, said he was backing Mr Hawes.

"Haverhill has folk of all races, nations and backgrounds happily getting on with their busy and productive lives. What a shame that some people seem happy to put that reputation at risk to score nasty and unjustified political points."

"UKIP is popular in Suffolk because we always put the interests of our residents first. I'm backing Haverhill and Kedington, and I'm backing

Bryan because we know he is a decent man without a racist bone in his body. "On May 7th the people of Kedington will show what they think of this silly smear."

However, Labour Cllr Maureen Byrne, who is standing for town, borough and county council, said what Mr Hawes had done "was no joke".

"Bryan Hawes exhibited racist behaviour. What he did was no joke," she said.

"All the town councillors from all political groups were very upset at his behaviour."

"We do not consider his conduct to have been a laughing matter."

"As town councillors we have responsibility to all our residents that they are treated with dignity and respect, regardless of race or colour."

"The complaint councillors made was not for political gain."

MORE than 200 runners turned out in the spring sunshine on Sunday to take part in a 10km run through Haverhill town centre.

The second annual Haver10 was held alongside a 2km fun run for younger runners.

The 10km race featured 181 runners, while 35 youngsters participated in the fun run.

The runners set off from Haverhill Leisure Centre at 11am, and 40 volunteers helped out.

The event was raising money for St Nicholas Hospice Care, which runs the Burton Centre in Haverhill.

Although sponsorship money has not yet been collected, race organiser Jack Tappin estimates that more than £3,000 has been raised from entry fees alone.

Mr Tappin said: "It's great to see such support in Haverhill and beyond, with people turning out to support a thriving athletics scene."

"The weather was nice, and everyone was really warm and receptive. Most people enjoyed it and liked the course."

"Hopefully we will see more and more people turning out for the HaverHalf half marathon in October."

Mayor of Haverhill Roger Andre started the race and gave out trophies at the end.

He said: "I am always proud of our town but on this occasion I was especially proud of our community and the volunteers who made this occasion possible."

Jordan Hughes, community fundraiser for St Nicholas Hospice Care said: "On behalf of the hospice I would like to thank all the runners who took part, the incredible team of marshal volunteers that made sure the route was safe and secure, Sanofi for sponsoring the event and to Jack for once again committing himself to achieving well."

The event was sponsored by Sanofi, with Tesco Haverhill, Icen Waters, Abbeycroft Leisure, 297 and the Castle Partnership. Perform Sports Therapy, OS Comms, Stylize Display Graphics, EFMS, KP Landscaping and P7 Photography also supported the event. To buy pictures, visit p7photography.co.uk.

THE LOST WORD: The leaflet sent out by Labour parliamentary candidate Michael Jefferys, above, which had text missing

MP candidate's leaflet blunder

A PARLIAMENTARY candidate has published a leaflet stating his aims – but left two bullet points missing.

Michael Jefferys, the Labour candidate for West Suffolk, published a list stating his plans for local jobs, the NHS and more, but two items on the list read "Bullet point text of about 15 words to go here..."

The leaflets were distributed in Newmarket last Tuesday, and have now been withdrawn.

Mr Jefferys said about the leaflets: "Clearly we were disappointed to find that they were on our leaflets."

"When I read the final proof, it wasn't there. It's just really annoying, but it's not a big deal, because we're putting out lots of leaflets now."

"In the helter-skelter of an election campaign you try to do things a little too quickly."

Warning over shortfall of school places

HANNAH MIRSKY

PARENTS will today receive offers of primary school places for their children – but oversubscription in Haverhill means they may not get the offers they want.

The manager of Suffolk County Council's schools admissions team Sharon Halpin sent an email to headteachers in Haverhill on April 1 about the issue.

The message read: "Most of the schools in the town are oversubscribed and we will not have enough places in the town for those where we are unable to offer any of their preferences. This will also be an issue when the late applications are processed."

The email also asks the headteachers if they have space for any more pupils at the school, offering to provide extra "accommodation" to the schools if necessary.

Mayor of Haverhill Roger Andre said: "The letter now received from admissions reveals an appalling failure in the pupil places planning by Suffolk County Council." Headteacher of Clements school Caroline Zwierchowska-Dod said: "Oversubscription is a particular problem in Haverhill because we are a growing community. It's great that families are moving here and want to access our schools."

"Parents shouldn't be worried because the local authority is working with us. Haverhill is full of excellent schools and places will be found for their children."

A county council spokesperson said: "An ever-growing population has applied huge pressure on the country as a whole in relation to finding new school places."

"This applies to the whole of Suffolk as well as Haverhill specifically."

"Suffolk County Council is working hard to ensure that as many children as possible are placed within their first preference school where possible."

Last year, 91 per cent of Suffolk pupils were offered places at their first choice school, and 97.8 per cent received an offer from one of their top three schools.

Ground broken on £50k community garden

THE ground-breaking ceremony for a new community garden took place on Friday.

The Garden of Life will be built using £50,000 of lottery funding at St Nicholas Hospice Care's Burton Centre in Camps Road.

The funding was announced in November. Since January a working group including residents, staff, patients and volunteers has been working to finalise the design with landscaping firm Pro-Scape.

On Friday, members of the working group got together for the ground-breaking ceremony, and work on the garden has now started.

Over the next six weeks, new fencing, paths, seating and shared areas and a veranda will be installed, and planting will take place to create a space for patients, carers and community groups.

To find out more, call Rachel Edwards at the Burton Centre on (01440) 848260.

Hancock under fire over trip in private jet

HANNAH MIRSKY

A PARLIAMENTARY candidate has received criticism for taking a private jet from Aberdeen to London – while serving as a minister for climate change.

Matthew Hancock, Conservative candidate for West Suffolk and government minister for energy and climate change, was in Aberdeen on March 5 to meet Mexican president Enrique Peña Nieto.

Although the main purpose of the meeting was to sign deals with oil and gas companies, the UK and Mexican governments also signed agreements "to work together on sustainable and low-carbon development".

Afterwards, Mr Hancock and other diplomats and officials shared a private jet back to London, despite 16 flights from Aberdeen to London airports being scheduled that day.

Labour parliamentary candidate for West Suffolk Michael Jefferys said: "Mr Hancock appears to have no respect for the environment or for the costs to the public purse."

A spokesperson from the Department for Energy and

CRITICISED: Matthew Hancock

Climate Change said: "The Minister was in Aberdeen to meet with a foreign dignitary on energy and climate change."

"He got a chartered flight together with senior diplomatic officials for the return journey, to fit around diary commitments."

"He was on official business and was helping to deliver a memorandum of understanding."

A spokesperson for Mr Hancock said: "The state visit was a big day for the North Sea oil industry, which has had a difficult time recently. Matt was in Aberdeen to host the Mexican president and promote this great British industry."

"He joined a flight with officials and diplomats, which was full."

It has also emerged that Mr Hancock has received £18,000 in donations from a well-known climate change sceptic. According to official records, he has received five donations from Neil Record, who is on the board of the campaigning arm of the Global Warming Policy Foundation. This group aims to challenge government policies to mitigate climate change. The most recent donation in November last year, was £4,000.

Mr Jefferys said: "I would like to hear Matthew Hancock's views on green issues after these revelations."

Niall Pettitt, West Suffolk candidate for the Green Party, said: "This demonstrates how the Conservatives continue to pander to the murky interests of big multi-national companies and ignore very real risks that climate change presents to constituents living in agricultural, coastal and flood-prone areas."

A spokesperson for Mr Hancock said: "All donations are declared publicly and proper process followed."

Community town? No, commuter town...

OPEN LETTER TO CLLR TONY BROWN

I HAVE read and digested your comments made in the Weekly News on April 2 in relation to the approved plans for 1,000 homes.

I totally agree with all you have stated and I, like you, am concerned that the development will be built without proper infrastructure (case in example, The Rovers old site).

I live within the facility where these newly-built homes will affect me in many ways. Selfish as it seems, and I am aware, I cannot put my leisure pursuits as a reason not to build. However, the land where the homes will be built is used, as you probably are aware, by many. This would include dog walkers, Haverhill Running Club, cyclists all to name but a few. The issues I am raising are primary to 'lack of infrastructure'.

Haverhill, as we have all seen has grown and grown; all around us we see new development sites being built. An influx of people and cars. I would suggest each new home built will have at least two cars per family. All I hear is, the great benefit received by new homes being built, the extra council tax generated, our local shops benefiting from new customers. What absolute rubbish... take for example the 'Haverhill Research Park' – under whose parish does this fall? Who benefits from council tax generated? Am I right in believing, Withersfield?

I, along with many Haverhill residents have been subjected to totally chaotic traffic delays. I have sat along Withersfield Road for 20 minutes while work has been undergoing for what seems an eternity. I ask, 'How can this be acceptable?' Traffic build-up has become intolerable since more and more developments have been built. The roads we have were not built for this volume of traffic.

But wait, let's develop another 1,000 homes with no road infrastructure and add more chaos to our already-heaving roads. We as residents of Haverhill need to be listened to. We want a relief road built first, we want to avoid the extra 1,000 cars having to come through our town. Why is this so difficult to understand?

I firmly believe no long-term foresight has been considered, which takes me back to the closure of the railway. I also question as to what public services will be increased. Will we be guaranteed extra doctors? If not, more pressure on the emergency department at Addenbrooke's, dentists, ambulance crews, social workers, police, physiotherapists, teachers – the list is endless.

It saddens me to think Haverhill community town will now be Haverhill commuter town.

How long before this town breaks down?

HAVING read the latest about the planned 1,150 homes to be built in Haverhill, the possible completion of the Research Park and anymore housing in the future leading up

Your Pictures

Duncan Fletcher-Brown set us this lovely photo of a robin. He wrote: "Now that the weather is (sometimes!) getting sunnier and warmer, it's been nice getting out with the camera, and the robin seems to be particularly keen to have its photo taken."

■ We love to see your photos. You can email them to: wendy.davey@cambridge-news.co.uk to Haverhill's Vision 2031 plan, the lack of 21st century infrastructure, I wonder how long it will be before Haverhill suffers its first heart attack.

Both bypasses North and South should have been built at the same time linking us to Bury St Edmunds, Colchester, Sudbury etc; but this is Haverhill, we take one step forward, two steps back, then stop.

Since its inception as an overspill town it has never been able to cope, if we ever had the chance it was pre-1967, since the closure of the railway, in reality all we have done is build more houses, lots of them, whilst our High Street is in truth not fit for its purpose anymore.

The 1968 Man Alive programme told it how it was, here we are 48 years later, what a mess we are in, not enough doctors, dentists, quality retail shops, not enough of anything, only houses... pathetic really, isn't it?

I suppose when the High Street has had its makeover and Haverhill Vision 2031 has come and gone and Haverhill has been renamed Utopia all will be forgotten, there still won't be a railway to the outside world, but it won't matter, anyone who remembered the railway will either be dead or have moved away.

I like the Bob Dylan record with the words "the answer my friend is blowin' in the wind, the answer is blowin' in the wind", Haverhill's answer is, it doesn't really have one.

LETTERS POLICY

Letters should arrive by noon on the Monday before publication.

Full name and address must be supplied and details will be withheld only in exceptional circumstances.

Letters should be no longer than 250 words and may be edited.

Send your letters to editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk, or write to The Editor, Haverhill Weekly News, 27 Market Place, Ely, CB7 4NP.

I wonder what it will be like ringing for a doctor's appointment in 2031, "I have this pain in my chest, it's probably indigestion sir or maybe something worse, get yourself off to hospital. The West Suffolk or Addenbrooke's are your closest, unfortunately we have no hospital here in Haverhill, you'll probably have to go by air though, as the roads are full and out of date".

"If you do need an appointment the earliest I can offer you will be in 8 months time, then of course you're maybe better by then and won't need it, or you'll be dead, then it won't matter either way". OTT possibly, with Haverhill you never know, has it lost the plot? Most definitely.

Can it recover? I'm of an age where I don't really care anymore, I'll just keep taking the pills!

Could you have a tea party for us?

I AM writing to invite your animal-loving readers to host a Paws for Tea tea party on Friday 15th May in aid of the wonderful work of Blue Cross pet charity.

Blue Cross's Paws for Tea fundraising event combines the nation's greatest loves – tea, cake and pets.

To take part, all you have to do is hold a tea party with friends, family or colleagues and ask them to make a donation in return for some tasty treats.

As an owner of many much loved pets, I know first-hand how rewarding they are and how much joy they bring to our lives.

But sadly, not all pets are fortunate enough to have loving homes.

Blue Cross works tirelessly to help over 40,000 sick, injured and homeless pets every year that would otherwise have nowhere else to go.

All funds raised will help Blue Cross care for the country's most needy pets, and every penny raised really does count.

Golf club raises £15k for hospice charity

A GOLF club has raised £15,707.46 for St Nicholas Hospice Care, which runs Haverhill's Burton Centre.

Haverhill Golf Club, which has more than 600 members, chose the cause as their charity of the year in 2014, and have been fundraising for the last 12 months.

They held events including charity days, raffles and a women-only tea party to raise the cash.

A presentation ceremony to hand over the money took place last Thursday at the golf club, when it was visited by St Nicholas Hospice Care community fundraiser Miranda McCoy.

Theresa Spittle, 2014 ladies' captain of the club, said: "We all know people who have been affected by cancer or life-threatening illnesses. We wanted to choose a very local charity to Haverhill to support and at the same time we heard the hospice was opening its outreach centre in the town.

"We knew, then, what we were going to choose."

WHAT A TOTAL: Miranda McCoy, St Nicholas Hospice Care community fundraiser; Theresa Spittle, Haverhill Golf Club 2014 ladies' captain; Bob Spittle, 2014 club captain; and Karen Daniels, club manager, celebrate the £15,707.46 raised by the club for the hospice

Children approached by man

Police are appealing for witnesses after a man approached two children in Haverhill.

The incident occurred at around 1pm yesterday, Thursday, April 9, when two primary school age children were playing in the street in the town's Layer Road.

The man approached the children and asked if they would like 20p to buy some sweets. The children ran straight home.

Police officers would like to speak to the man about the incident.

He is described as white, with a bald head and skinny frame, with a tattoo round the side and back of his neck.

Anyone who believes they may know this man, or who has information about this incident, should contact PC John Camp at Haverhill Police Station on 101 quoting crime reference number HH/15/828.

You can also call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Shop sold lager to boy, 15

A BUSINESSMAN has admitted selling alcohol to a 15-year-old.

Balamurugah Sivasubramaniam, of Primrose Mini Market in Haverhill's Primrose Hill, pleaded guilty to selling alcohol to minors at Bury St Edmunds Magistrates Court on Tuesday.

The prosecution was the result of an underage alcohol test purchase operation carried out on January 10, 2014.

Two cans of Red Stripe lager were sold to a test purchase volunteer aged just 15.

HANNAH MIRSKY

Sivasubramaniam has been ordered to pay more than £3,000: a £1,500 fine, £1,500 in prosecution costs, and a £150 victim surcharge.

He had previously pleaded not guilty, but changed his plea in court.

Magistrates told him that if there were any future offences involving underage alcohol sales, the business's licence could be in jeopardy.

This follows a previous incident in 2013 where the store sold a bottle of wine to a 16-year-old.

Steve Greenfield, Suffolk County Council's head of trading standards said: "There are simple steps a business can follow to prevent prosecution, such as ensuring all staff are trained in the sale of age restricted products.

"It is important to keep a written record of the training you have provided, ensuring the records are signed and dated.

"I would also encourage retailers to consider implementing a challenge 25 policy to make it easier for staff to identify those under the age of 18 years.

"Should anyone have information on premises or areas of the County where they have concern that young people are obtaining alcohol, they can report it to Trading Standards on 03454 040506 or tradingstandards@suffolk.gov.uk."

The prosecution followed successful intervention by Suffolk Police and Suffolk Trading standards.

Rugby club marks 50th season

REUNITED: Haverhill Rugby Club and Harwich and Dovercourt

HAVERHILL Rugby Club celebrated the end of their 50th season on Saturday - with a match against their first ever competitors.

Haverhill founder member Paul Brown and members from all five decades of the club's history watched the match.

'PROUD': New head of school at Castle Manor Academy Vanessa Whitcombe at an event to improve the school's environment

New head of school at Castle Manor

HANNAH MIRSKY

A TEACHER stepped into her new role as head of school this week.

Vanessa Whitcombe took up the post at Castle Manor Academy after previously acting as director of teaching and learning.

She said: "I am looking forward to working closely with colleagues to lead Castle Manor."

"I have worked for the Castle Partnership Academy Trust for a long time and Castle Manor has a special place in the heart of our community. I am proud to be taking on this role at such an exciting time."

Previous head of school Matthew Gibson left before the Easter holiday after nearly two years in the role.

In a letter to parents he said: "I wish the whole school community all the very best for the future and know that those students soon to sit exams this coming summer will do themselves, their families and the school proud."

Hospital stroke treatment good

STROKE patients at a Suffolk hospital receive some of the best care in the country, according to figures released by SSNAP (Sentinel Stroke National Audit Programme).

The data rates West Suffolk Hospital as level A, making it the best performing in the Eastern region and in the top ten in the country.

The criteria for judging include how quickly patients get a brain scan, whether they are rapidly transferred to a dedicated stroke unit and how many patients are given clot-busting thrombolysis treatment.

TAKE YOUR PICK: Standing to become the next MP for West Suffolk, clockwise from above left: Julian Flood, Matthew Hancock, Michael Jefferys, Elfreda Tealby-Watson and Niall L'Estrange Pettit

THE five candidates vying for your votes in West Suffolk in the general election on May 7 will be going head to head in a hustings event tomorrow night.

The candidates are:
Julian Flood, for the UK Independence Party (UKIP)
Matthew Hancock, for the Conservative party
Michael Jefferys, for the Labour party
Niall L'Estrange Pettit, for the Green party
Elfreda Tealby-Watson, for the Liberal Democrats

Nominations for candidates to stand for the West Suffolk constituency closed on Thursday, April 9.

So far, Julian Flood, Matthew Hancock, Michael Jefferys and

HANNAH MIRSKY & NATALIE ROBINSON

Elfreda Tealby-Watson have been confirmed as taking part in the hustings event, which will take place at 7pm at St Mary's Church in Market Square.

The event was organised in response to a letter from the House of Lords' Church of England Bishops in February, which urged Christians to get involved in the election, but is open to people of any faith.

It is one of at least eight hustings events taking place in churches across Suffolk.

Rev Canon Graham Owen, assistant priest at St. Mary's said: "As Christians we want to hear how the different candidates are going to offer us their visions of the kind of society and culture we wish to see."

Business people in Haverhill can also engage with the candidates at a breakfast event organised by the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce on April 24.

The event will take place at 7.30am at the new canteen at Samuel Ward Academy in Chalkstone Way.

Each of the parliamentary candidates will give a 10-minute presentation about what they would do as MP for West Suffolk.

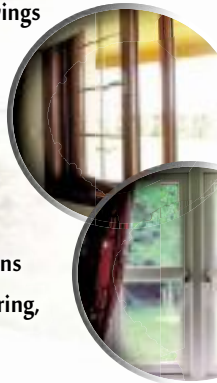

There will be a question-and-answer session after the presentations and a full English Breakfast.

This event is ticketed and costs £10 plus VAT for Chamber of Commerce Members and £15 plus VAT for guests, including a full English breakfast.

Appeal after day burglaries

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after three daytime burglaries, including one in the village of Wixoe.

The window of a property was forced open between 11.45am and 3.15pm on Wednesday, April 8. The burglars stole £300 in cash from inside.

On the same day, a man attempted a burglary around 1pm in West Street, Icklingham, and a Playstation games were stolen from a house in Hintlesham between 3pm and 4.50pm.

In Icklingham, the police searched the area and were assisted by the helicopter unit, but could not locate the offenders. They are looking for two white men in their mid-20s, who are slender and around 5ft 8in tall. The first man was wearing a checked jacket or shirt and a green hat and the second a light-cloured top.

Anyone who saw anything should call Bury St Edmunds Priority Crime Team on 101.

Trust has been shortlisted once again for this prized national accolade.

"To be named as a finalist for five years in a row is a fantastic achievement and testament to the hard work and commitment of our staff."

Around the Villages

The Red Lion is a home from home for all

GEORGE and Linda Sykes are delighted to be celebrating an impressive 16 years running the much-loved Great Wrating pub The

WELCOME: George and Linda Sykes

ADVERTISING FEATURE

Red Lion, this month.

The pub, which Linda says owes much of its success to the friendly "home-from-home" atmosphere, has been at the centre of village life for many years, providing great home-cooked food to a thriving lunchtime and evening trade. Their Sunday roast is a particular local favourite, and their great selection of beers including Adnams, traditional beers and guest ales which change each week are also all great reasons to visit.

With several siblings among the members of staff in the long-serving team, it's a real "family atmosphere" at The Red Lion. Linda explains that this has allowed them to really get to know their customers and their likes and dislikes, and provide those small personal touches that make all the difference.

Customers of all ages will find a warm welcome at the pub. From senior citizens enjoying the quiet and restful corner of the back garden to kids making great use of the great outdoor area now that warmer days are on their way, there is something for everyone.

As they look forward to many more years to come at The Red Lion, George and Linda want to pass on their thanks to all of their customers, friends and family over the years, and are looking forward to greeting new and old faces in the pub in the future.

To make a reservation at The Red Lion, telephone (01440) 783237.

Marc Almond

Marc Almond, Cambridge Corn Exchange, Monday, April 20 at 7.30pm. Tickets £22-£40 from (01223) 357851 / cornex.co.uk.

LANCASHIRE-born Peter Mark Sinclair Almond is best known to all as Marc Almond, 80s legend and former Soft Cell singer (who doesn't know all the words to 'Tainted Love'?). The 57-year-old is something of a legend, never without his eyeliner and pasty complexion.

In recent years he's toured with Jools Holland and his rhythm and blues band, as well as with composer John Harle on The Tyburn Tree project, a concept record exploring the themes around Dark London, which we found rather bizarre when it visited Cambridge Corn Exchange. He's the master of taking a surreal direction though; remember when he skedaddled to Russia for three years to record a Russian folk record?

Then again, he's also collaborated with Carl Barat and Jarvis Cocker in the past, and won the Ivor Novello Inspiration Award.

His most recent record, 'The Velvet Trail', came out in March to middling acclaim.

Many have called it a return to form, while 'Pop Matters' described it as "a complete and coherent artistic statement – not something one is likely to encounter all that often, but it's only more special for its rarity," – although it did admit how much the regular listener will appreciate it is dependent on how much of Almond's theatrics you can take.

You can find out at Cambridge Corn Exchange – the man is back on tour.

Is the day coming when the computer and the fMRI scanner will answer all the questions psychology can ask? We have a live broadcast on Thursday 16 April at 7pm.

■ A true legend of British music, MADDY PRIOR has built her career on exploring various musical avenues. Her latest album 3 For Joy is no exception, a further exploration of the tradition she loves. Together with new musical partners Giles Lewin (The Carnival Band) and young accordion player Hannah James, Maddy returns to Haverhill to perform the music of England, the British Isles and Eastern Europe on Friday 17 April at 8pm.

■ Join us for ROY ORBISON AND THE TRAVELING WILBURYS TRIBUTE SHOW on Saturday 18 April at 8pm. The six-piece band features five top class tributes in one spectacular show – Roy Orbison, George Harrison, Bob Dylan, Jeff Lynne and Tom Petty,

■ On the cinema front we have THE SECOND BEST EXOTIC MARIGOLD HOTEL (PG) showing Monday 20 at 1.30pm and Wednesday 22 April at 7.30pm. In this sequel to 2011's smash-hit grown-up romcom, the Marigold's co-manager Sonny plans to open a second, rather more luxurious hotel, but his impending marriage to the feisty Sunaina and the unexpected arrival of guests who may or may not be hotel inspectors prove added strains.

SELMA (12A) showing on Monday 20 April at 7.30pm is a powerful Oscar-nominated dramatisation of a key period in America's Civil Rights movement.

Opening with Martin Luther King collecting his Nobel Peace Prize, Selma focuses on the city that King chose as pivotal to his efforts to persuade President Johnson to grant voting rights for all; a battle that proved bitter and often bloody. Finally, STILL ALICE (12A) starring Julianne Moore who won an Oscar for Best Female Actress in a Leading Role, is showing on Thursday 23 April at 7.30pm.

After noticing her memory failing, a linguistics professor is secretly diagnosed with genetically driven Alzheimer's. The deterioration accelerates, and worse still, one of her children tests positive for the same gene.

A 'ewe'unique agent for Haverhill

THE fast-growing sales and letting agent, EweMove, is welcoming a new member to its flock as Jane Chance opens her doors in Haverhill: the latest branch for EweMove, which is rapidly appearing in every town around the country.

Jane, who has been living and working in the Haverhill area for over 30 years, is very knowledgeable of the local property market, and commented: "I am delighted to be bringing the unique award-winning EweMove brand to Haverhill".

She continued: "I am confident that our innovative approach to estate agency, combined with our 24/7 service and passion for baa-rilliant customer experience will be hugely beneficial to everyone looking to buy, sell or let locally.

"The key to our success and rapid growth is our quirky brand and our extensive marketing. We make sure that our customers' properties really do stand out from the crowd, giving them the attention they deserve," she continued. "This includes providing amazing photographs, 2D and 3D colour floor plans as well as carefully crafted marketing descriptions. First and foremost, we pride ourselves on working harder than any other agent to deliver results for our clients."

With branches across the UK, EweMove prides itself not only on having a stand-out brand with a unique website and eye-catching For Sale/To-Let boards, but also on its superb customer service propositions. With a motto of "We'll never fleece ewe" and a bid to better the average house-selling time, the company offers a unique cast-iron guarantee to sell a home in 77 days. Equally, customers are not required to pay upfront fees or sneaky hidden charges along with a 'No Sale - No Fee' promise, it's also free for a tenant to apply for a property. According to Jane, 95 per cent of buyers now search online for property. This is why EweMove lists properties on all of the major property portals, which generates huge exposure each month. "This, combined with EweMove's 'Mammoth Marketing' approach," she continued, "means that our seller's and landlord's homes get more interest, more quickly. We also operate a 24/7 service to ensure that any viewing, enquiry, purchase offer or application is never lost. It's obvious really. Most people search for houses online when they've finished work, or at weekends - precisely when most agents are shut. They're missing a trick, as we get lots of enquiries during these periods, so our clients don't miss out."

EweMove's award winning 'Ewe-reka' system enables prospective buyers and tenants to book their own viewing appointments online without needing to call an agent or make time to visit an office. They can then apply or make an offer for a property by phone, or online 24 hours a day from home. Tenants can also use the EweMove website to pay rent and report repairs.

For anyone wondering what their home is worth, or what the rental value of a property in Haverhill is, the EweMove website features a free online valuation tool that provides an instant valuation report. For further information contact (01440) 966166 or visit www.ewemove.com/HAVERHILL where the free, instant valuation tool can be accessed.

ADVANCED: New C-Max and Grand C-Max have impressive specs

Enhancements for Ford's new C-Max range

FORD's new fuel-efficient, flexible and stylish C-Max and Grand C-Max offer active families advanced driver assistance technologies, convenience features, and higher levels of comfort and safety.

The new five-seat C-Max and seven-seat Grand C-Max Multi-Activity Vehicles (MAV) provide enhanced refinement and ride quality with revised chassis, body and interior designs. The C-Max family also offers segment-first Hands-Free Tailgate that enables customers to access the boot with a simple kicking motion, and an enhanced version of the Active City Stop system designed to help avoid or mitigate incidents.

The new C-Max and Grand C-Max combine reduced running costs with significantly improved fuel efficiency and CO2 emissions with downsized engines including Ford's new 1.5-litre TDCi diesel engine, offered with 120PS, which delivers 105g/km CO2 – a 12 per cent improvement in CO2 compared to the 1.6-litre diesel it replaces, while delivering 5PS more power.

There are also 100PS and 125PS versions of Ford's 1.0-litre EcoBoost petrol unit, the first engine to be awarded the International Engine of the Year trophy three years in a row.

Auto-Start-Stop is offered as standard on the 2.0-litre TDCi diesel engines for the first time, helping deliver up to 17 per cent reduction in CO2 emissions, with power up by 7 per cent.

Clean-Up Time

With Simon Walters

This week: Bird dropping solutions

BUGS start to become a constant problem on windscreens and bumpers at this time of year, along with bird dropping and other contamination.

Ensure you clean your windscreen thoroughly and as regularly as possible as contamination caught in your windscreen wipers can cause scratching that, once built up, is costly to remove.

Additionally, always soak bird dropping before attempting to remove so as not to scratch your paintwork.

'Top Gear' May's 12 motorbikes under hammer

TWELVE motorcycles belonging to Top Gear presenters Richard Hammond and James May are to be sold at Bonhams Spring Stafford Sale later this month.

May said: "Just because I'm unemployed now doesn't mean I have to get rid of everything. I was going to sell these bikes anyway. And those paintings, and my collection of Scalextric cars. Honest."

Hammond said: "The Bonhams Stafford sale is the ideal opportunity to move bikes on and possibly acquire new ones."

Included in the sale is Hammond's 2010 Norton Commando 961SE, which could fetch as much as £18,500, while May's collection includes a 2010 Yamaha SR400, which could go for £12,000.

The sale is at the Staffordshire County Showground on April 26.

WATER TECHNOLOGY: GreenClean managing director Nadeem Bouzid with father Ahmed servicing the water filtration system at the firm's Coldhams Lane car wash facility

Pictures: Keith Heppell

Green Clean in eco-wash offer

STARTING today and for the next week GreenClean's eco-friendly car wash will be donating 10 per cent of its revenue to Water Aid.

The offer is designed to draw attention to the Coldhams Road-based eco-wash facility which has a new filtration system where 96 per cent of the water involved is recycled.

The service is based on a 6,000-litre tank sunk 2.5 metres under the workshop's base. A chemical in the tank separates the dirt and water, which rises to the top (the tank is fully cleaned every six months), and the water then goes through a three-stage filtration process before flowing into the foul water - ie non-drinking water - system.

"At GreenClean we understand that water is precious," says GreenClean managing director Nadeem Bouzid, "which is why we have an on-site water recycling machine which allows us to recycle 96 per cent of the water we use to clean your car. But because it's still a hand car wash you get the professional finish you'd expect."

All Camcab's taxi vehicles are also serviced and cleaned on-site. The eco-wash facility, which is open to the public seven days a week, cleans up to 100 cars a day. The recycling facility allows the team to remain competitive with other car wash teams while still offering a specialist, customised, service.

A team of six keeps the Green Clean facility open through the week. Prices start at £7 and in the 500 sq metre warehouse customers have the option of an interior shampoo/clean and valet services.

"We only use AutoGlym products," adds Nadeem whose father, Ahmed, also works at the facility. "We can physically clean six cars at any one time, and customers can make use of the TV and coffee machine in the waiting area."

GreenClean has corporate clients including the NHS and estate agents in the city, and offers customers a "Stamp Me" card - "it's like a super-market loyalty card and based on your phone".

GreenClean is at 11 Coldhams Road, CB1 3EW. Call (01223) 214251 for details or go to greencleancambridge.co.uk.

Water Aid is an international non-profit organisation that was set up in 1981 as a response to the UN International Drinking Water & Sanitation decade 1981-1990.

The charity operates in 26 countries, transforming millions of lives every year with safe water, sanitation and hygiene projects.

Cambridge MG delight as MG6 gets 2015 spec boost

MG's award-winning MG6 has just got even better with the introduction of the new MG6, which offers 'more MG for your money' – and Cambridge MG is very impressed.

With much higher levels of specification, the new MG6 offers customers a £3,000 value-for-money improvement over the previous model. This makes the new car truly amazing value with prices now starting from £13,995.

Cambridge MG will get demonstration cars soon and will be taking orders for the new car.

The 2015 version of the MG6 offers major advances in every area of the car which first launched four years ago. The new MG6 offers improved performance; a striking new design; higher levels of comfort; enhanced levels of standard specification; and key technical advances.

Three new trim levels of the new MG6 are offered – all featuring key upgrades from the out-going model.

- The new models are:
- New MG6 S – £13,995.00
- New MG6 TS – £16,195.00
- New MG6 TL – £17,995.00

The new model offers higher levels of performance, lower emissions, and improved mpg and results from the intensive development work carried out by engineers based at MG's Birmingham operation.

THE NEW MG6: Across-the-board enhancements

The 2015 DTI-TECH engine is the latest generation of MG's own developed diesel engine. This version still develops 150PS and a strong 350NM from only 1,800rpm, but now produces only 119g/km of CO2 and gives 61.4mpg in combined driving. Improvements have also been made in driveability making the new MG6 the best balance of driver satisfaction and efficiency yet produced by MG.

In short, the engine on the new MG6 has been significantly improved and the 10g reduction in emissions makes the car 'cleaner' but with no loss of performance.

The new MG6 is, on average, 75kg lighter than the out-going car and is 0.5 secs quicker from 0 to 60mph. Now it takes 8.4 secs compared to 8.9 sec in the previous model.

Move up to the top-level TL, still at only £17,995, and the levels of enhanced comfort just get higher.

Andrew Ballard at Cambridge MG said: "Value-for-money is what customers are looking for now, and we have certainly delivered that with the 2015 MG6."

THE VAUXHALL VIVA: On its way

Vauxhall prices the new Viva from £8k

THINKING of buying a small car? Vauxhall wants you to stop what you're doing and look this way: the firm has just announced prices for the Viva supermini.

The budget-friendly runabout will start from £7,995, which buys a basic SE model with six airbags, electric mirrors and front windows, and remote central locking.

Special 'Air Con' and 'EcoFlex' versions of the SE will be added for those who want air conditioning or sub-100g/km emissions.

Upgrading to SL trim – a badge deliberately carried over from the original Viva – brings a price tag of £9,495. Climate control, improved seat trim, leather steering wheel trim, six speakers, a USB connection and Bluetooth will all be standard.

Westcott proud of Borough display

HAVERHILL Borough suffered a 1-0 loss at Thurlow Nunn League, First Division title hopefuls Long Melford after having Lee Hurkett sent off after 10 minutes.

Borough manager Martin Westcott had no complaint with the referee's decision to send Hurkett off but took heart from his team's performance.

They held out throughout the first half as Melford struggled to take advantage of their numerical superiority, and the visitors threatened on several occasions.

Ryan Weaver was unlucky not to get on the end of Aaron Forshaw's free kick, and Owen Longley made a good run, only to see his cross hit the side netting.

The winning goal came on the stroke of half time, and despite a spirited second-half display, Borough were unable to get the equaliser.

"Long Melford are a difficult side to play against when you've got 11 players," said Westcott.

"We still created chances in the second half and worked really hard to keep ourselves in the game."

Relieved Barker set for Supercup

BEN Barker admitted he was relieved to get a deal to compete in this year's Mobil1 Porsche Supercup after a previous arrangement suddenly fell through at short notice.

A fully-funded deal collapsed 10 days ago, leaving the Haverhill driver with few options for the coming months.

But just days later he was able to sign with the MOMO-Megatron-Partrax team, and is now looking forward to a promising year as he embarks on a third Supercup campaign.

"I'm relieved to have a deal and to be able to get on the grid," he said.

"I've got a good engineer and a good mechanic and that's all that matters. There's no reason why we can't aim for the championship."

The Supercup's opening race takes place in support of the Spanish Grand Prix during the weekend of May 9/10.

Iron celebrates pair of tournament wins

> Golf

JAMES Iron enjoyed double success after winning both of Haverhill's recent junior competitions.

He triumphed in the mixed medal handicap section of the P Franklin Trophy and followed that up with victory in the A Steam mixed competition.

His round of nett 72 and gross 85 saw him clinch the medal win, with Josh Hulyer second on nett 74 and gross 92, and Alice Iron third with nett 76 and gross 90.

However, James Iron needed countback to win the A Steam event after both he and Ollie Fish had scored nett 68.

Tom Turner's impressive haul of 45 points saw him win the stableford section of the P Franklin Trophy, well clear of runner-up Ewan Groves on 19.

Harry Proctor won the A Steam stableford competition on 28, while Groves was again runner-up with a score of 26.

James Iron was one of the big winners at the junior section's presentation evening, taking home four trophies from the previous year.

Prizes: The winners from Haverhill Golf Club's junior presentation evening.

He won the Waddup Windows Trophy medal competition, CAB Edwards Junior Club Championship handicap competition, the October stableford from the white tees and March medal.

Meanwhile, Fiona Stokes was named as Haverhill's junior golfer of the year.

The trophy is awarded to the junior golfer who accumulates the most points through entries and being placed in competitions throughout the year, with Stokes victorious.

Stokes won the Daily Telegraph competition for girls, the stableford in the P Bowers and D Quinney Trophy, and the January medal.

Harry Proctor was named as the club player of the year, which is awarded to the golfer with the best positive attitude, behaviour and etiquette both on and off the course.

Other special achievement awards saw Lewis Whiting win the Birdie Tree, Dan Bentley win the The T Weller Eclectic Cup, Turner win the Stableford Shield and Dan Walker win the Committee Trophy.

Whiting's honour was added to his victory in the Daily Telegraph boys competition and the scratch section of the Junior Club Championship.

Bentley was winner of the Junior Captain's Day 18-hole medal competition and Turner won the 18-hole stableford.

The Spring Cup medal went to Ben Bradnam and the stableford to Groves, while Walker won the Junior Autumn Shield medal and Proctor took the stableford.

The medal competitions in the P Bowers Trophy and D Quinney Trophy were won by Bradnam and Hulyer respectively.

Matt Carpenter won the Waddup Windows stableford and the Junior Foursomes was won by Ollie Stevenson and Fish.

The other monthly competition winners were Carpenter in the October stableford from the red tees and January stableford, and Hulyer in the December medal.
